Terms and Conditions:

The COMM Fire District retains the right to reject any and all bids.

All property will be sold to the highest bidder "as-is, where-is." Every effort has been made to provide accurate information about the bid item.

Bids shall be submitted prior to the time fixed in the invitation for bids, and upon receipt of same District Administration shall mark the time of receipt and place his/her initials upon the bid. Bids received after the time so indicated in the notice to bidders shall be returned unopened. The District is not responsible for misdirected or not properly filled out bids.

High bidder(s) will be notified and required to submit a bank check or money order as payment. Payment must be given to COMM Fire Department on the day of removal. Full payment must be made prior to removal of any item(s). Payment and removal of items from COMM Fire District premises must occur within two (2) weeks of notification of winning bid. The Fire District is not responsible for any shipping or moving costs.

In the event the high bidder does not fulfill these requirements, the next highest bidder will be notified.

The Brush Breaker will be awarded to the responsive bidder offering the highest price of the vehicle described in the invitation for bids. The awarding authority reserves the right to reject any and all bids and to dispose of the vehicle through a negotiated sale, provided that the negotiated sale price is higher than the highest bid received from a responsive bidder.

The District disclaims any and all warranty or guaranty, express or implied, of the condition of the hulk other than as noted, and/or of any purpose for which anyone might intend its use.

The District also disclaims any suggestion that the list of defects is intended to be or is complete and advise that there may be latent as well as patent defects that are not cited. Any risk of loss/damage falls upon the bidder immediately upon commencement of recovery activity.

The bidder agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the District from all loss, costs, fees, expenses, damages, demands and legal or equitable claims arising from, caused by or in any way related to the vehicle and the transaction.
